

Shooting Star

John Ludgate

Track Listing

- 1) Reluctant Mercenary/Trust Yourself*
- 2) No Right Or Wrong*
- 3) Carousel Of Love*
- 4) Different Light*
- 5) Last Exit*
- 6) Robert Frost Said...*
- 7) Sometimes*
- 8) How Right I Was*
- 9) Synergistic Compromise*
- 10) Shooting Star*

Randy Cook – Drums                      Mike Eastman – Electric Guitar
Doug Elash – Bass                        Bob Lucier – Steel Guitar
Kenny Munshaw – Piano                      Vince Renaldo – Organ
John Ludgate – Vocals & Acoustic Guitar

Produced by Mike Shotten    Mastered by Mark Schollenberg

All songs written by John Ludgate except “Robert Frost Said...”
(Words by Robert Frost, Music by John & Anthony Ludgate)

1)Reluctant Mercenary/Trust Yourself – Mercenary folk singers, trashy TV situation comedies and talk shows, hidden agendas=dubious wisdom from the pop culture store ...

2)No Right Or Wrong – It’s simple ...you have to make choices and you won’t please everybody.

3)Carousel Of Love – “Sometimes we’re hawks, sometimes we’re doves, We’re riding on the carousel of love.”

4)Different Light - Everything looks different in a different light

5)Last Exit – The things that in your heart you already know.

6)Robert Frost Said... - “The woods are silent, dark and deep but I have promises to keep and miles to go before I sleep” ...couldn’t have said it better myself.

7)Sometimes – Sometimes the world is mean and ugly and “sometimes it’s all so beautiful.”

8)How Right I Was – For the times that your right when you don’t really want to be.

9)Synergistic Compromise – The battle of the sexes... “Sometimes I agree with you baby, just to get along.”

10)Shooting Star – We’re supposed to be wise, with all-knowing eyes. But we still feel like kids, trying to explain what we did ...or like children when they try, to understand why.