

Northern Soul – John & Sheila Ludgate

Electric Guitars

Summer sun, warm light
Blackbird singing, just out of sight
The Beatles are playing, something called Rain
But the sun is shining on our Penny Lane
The future's forever, today's a song,
Tomorrow never knows yesterday is gone
We can work it out, it won't be long,
Electric guitars and Beatles songs
Ooh...when the rain came
Ooh...when the rain came
Ooh...when the rain came
We played a new game

It's all over now, hard rain's going to fall
Times are changing for us all
Bob Dylan's singing "how does it feel"
Don't think twice, nothing is real Summer's ending, fading away
Colours changing to shades of gray
Who knows how long, who knows how far Dylan's still singing with his electric guitar
Ooh ...how does it feel?
Ooh ...how does it feel?
Ooh ...how does it fee?!
When it all gets so real

Ooh summertime dream
Ooh summertime stars
Ooh radio songs
Ooh, electric guitars...

Northern Soul (A Song For Canada)

The water shines and marks the way through the forest pine...
Nature's gift, nature's song, nature's sign

From silent trees to the wind-swept quay so wild and true...
Northern land, so strong & free, so old, so new

Chorus - So many miles, so many roads
We've come so far, so far to go
From sea to sea, one land, one home
A silent wish in the falling snow

The open road, the open sky, the northern light...

Open arms, open minds, we'll be alright

Repeat Chorus

...A silent walk,
Ancient, unknown...
A silent wish...

Etoile du nord, northern soul dans le nord vrai...
La terre du nord, libre et fort
Here I'll stay

One Thing's For Certain...

You put one foot in front of the other
You hold out your hand to your sister and your brother
We're all here together, one for another
And you put one foot, in front of the other
You keep your head
You stumble, you recover
You find your voice among the noise and the clutter
And you put one foot in front of the other

You do the best you can, with what you've been given
Don't lose your way among the takers and the driven
Secrets hidden, temptation, the forbidden
You do the best you can, with what you've
been given
Mistakes are made, made to be forgiven Every day's a choice, the future's still unwritten
You do the best you can, with what you've
been given

Bridge – Hanging on, letting go
You might never know
All the reasons why...

One thing's for certain, things are gonna
change
You don't know where it's going still you ride this train
One day it's sunshine, the next it's rain
One thing's for certain, things are gonna
change

So long gone, nothing stays the same
The end of the line, starting over again
One thing's for certain, things are gonna
change

One thing's for certain, nothing stays the same...

Repeat Bridge

...all the reasons why

In Between Days

I forgot what I came to remember Hung around, but there was nothing there Sang the same songs even though the reasons were gone - just a memory
Wrapped in a poem and a prayer

The day to day is a brutal teacher
When you're misunderstood, the signs get misread
And all the unspoken words
Drown out everything that's been said

Chorus - Ashes to ashes
The in-between days
The in-between lives as the dreams fade away
Dust to dust, you know that it's true
You start off black & white
You end up black & blue

I want to believe in someday
I want to believe in you
I want to believe in just one more time
But for now what we've done will have to do

The burned out sign says it's time
The dream police say 'move along'
Don't look back, the past is gaining fast
Just let that swan sing its song

Repeat Chorus

...Ashes to ashes, dust to dust,
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust,
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust,
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust

Coming Home To You

Riding on this train again
Nothing left to lose
Riding on this train again
Coming home to you
The days were fine, I drank the wine
Now the good time bill is due
Riding on this train again
Coming home to you

Thought I was doin' OK
Saw what I wanted to see
Thought I was doin' OK
Till my shadow started laughing at me
In a world where the con is king,
How right can wrong be?
Thought I was doin' OK
Till my shadow started laughing at me

Bridge - The days we have are so few Everything's changed, nothing's new
But I always come back to you

The heart has its reason
That reason cannot know
We carry what we left behind
wherever we go
Age in my eyes, scars on my soul
We carry what we left behind
wherever we go

With age in my eyes and these scars on my soul
Riding on this train again
Am I still someone you know?
Riding on this train again
Am I still someone you know?

Blink

Appointments, demands,
Schedules and reprimands
There's never time to sing your song
Turn around, you'll find tomorrow
Turn around again
You'll find tomorrow's gone

Pilgrim, poet, beggar-man or thief

How'd they ever wind up here?
Once they had a future, but it didn't last
Where do dreams go, when they disappear?

Chorus 1 – Blink, and it's over –
Blink and it's gone
Today, yesterday's tomorrow
It's here, but not for long

You can run on money
You can run on greed
Trade your faith for fear of being alone
The poor can bless you, the rich will test you It's what you give away
it's not what you own

Chorus 2 – Blink, and it's over –
Blink and it's gone
The past, just a memory
The future, an unsung song

So many faces, so many places, disappearing traces of home
Turn around, you'll find tomorrow
Turn around again
You'll find tomorrow's gone

Blink, and it's over...

Requiem For Love

I speak, but I don't feel
I'm here, but nothing is real
My nerves are shattered
I'm alone with all the years
I keep the flame burning
But your light is gone from here

It all comes round to where it all came from
I can't let go of what's left undone
I deal with the distance, I watch for a sign I don't know where you are,
But you live in my heart and mind

Bridge – I get the big picture It's the details that do me in
I thank the well-wishers,
With no idea how I'll begin again

Broken reasons, broken rhymes
Broken hearts, broken minds
You broke free of these chains
You left this house of cards
You're as close as a memory
Far away as the farthest star...

Fine Line

The simple things come back
Sneak up and twist your heart
You can rip off that rear view mirror
But they'll find you in the dark

I took a second look
I sang the money song
I flew so high, I almost touched the sky
When I came back down love was gone

Chorus - Listen to the wind
It whispers your name
It says - You'll find no peace in the land of the driven
Come back home, all is forgiven
The debt's been paid, forgotten, over-ridden
And in time, you'll find, you're not walking that fine line, anymore

Pride and false confidence
Living in the present tense

You might be blind to what you left behind
But you'll live with the consequence

Repeat Chorus

... In time, you'll find, you're not walking
that fine line, anymore

Inside Job

In between the hyped scene of the Wannabes and the don't wanna-be-seens
Easy money but nobody rides for free

No quarter, take it all, the dollar's so hot
It burns, it scalds
No one heard 'last call' till we hit that wall

Chorus - Sometimes we get it right
Sometimes we get it wrong
Sometimes it don't feel right like somebody else's song
Maybe we're out of time
Maybe we're out of line
Maybe the deal's been signed and taken to the bank

A free market, inside job
Big money singing the same old song Wants you to close your eyes and believe and just sing along

Black to red, the smile fades, lean and mean now get out of the way
The rats are coming back and the piper never got paid

Repeat Chorus

... Maybe we're out of time
Maybe we're out of line
Maybe the deal's been signed and taken to
the bank

Let's Just Say...

Let's just say the fighting's over
Let's just say nobody wins
Let's just say what's done is done, the past is gone with the wind
Let's just say that tomorrow
Together we'll find our way

Lost and found, safe and sound
Let's just say...

Chorus - That we'll give peace a chance, Lennon's lunatic dance, not so crazy after all these years of war machines, oil greed schemes, mind game times and mind game fears Where it's hype it up, dumb it down
The non-stop news goes round Bought and sold by the big money media feed
From east to west, from my right to your left Johnny's still singing love is all you need
...and it still works for me

Let's just say we're sorry
And let's just say that we still care
Let's just say we each want what we want,
But there's so many dreams that we still share
Let's just say that we're different
But somehow so much the same
We can work it out, someday, someday
...let's just say

Repeat Chorus ...it still works for me
... Let's just say the fighting's over...

A Candle For The Prodigal

Paying the price
Trying to find my way home
Down this dead-end road
Through the great unknown
I was guilty, still I threw the first stone
Now my burning mind won't leave me alone

Stoking the fire
I don't know what for Cause there's nothing I want here anymore
Closing my mind, closing my heart
Closing that door
Using dollars and cents to keep score

Chorus - Burn a candle, shine a light Say a prayer for me tonight
Too far gone, too tired to fight
I miss you so much, goodnight

Road to nowhere
Road to ruin
I'm so out of time, I'm out of tune
Empty songs, empty words, empty rooms
The lesson's are hard
But they'll be over soon

Repeat Chorus

... Burn a candle, shine a light...

I'm A Dog

My tongue is usually, hanging out
I get where I'm goin' by following my snout
What I am, there isn't any doubt ...
I'm a dog

I like to be by my master's side
In the car, with my head hanging outside
When we're together, it's always a sweet, sweet ride...
I'm a dog

Chorus 1 - I'm faithful, I don't argue, I aim to please
Do what he says, if I know what he means
Anything my master wants,
I'm always keen...
I'm his dog

I eat, I sleep, I scratch when I itch
When I see other canines, I take a fit
When you're looking for did 'it',
I'm usually it ...
I'm a dog

Chorus 2 –I'm the only one that doesn't fight with him
When I see my master coming
I welcome him in Don't ask for explanations or where he's been ...
I'm his dog

My breath it really makes a stink
It's that tasty toilet water I like to drink
One thing's for certain –
I'm not the missing link...
I'm a dog

A Dog's Last Ride (For Abbie)

The days get so dark
The body falls apart
The light behind the eyes grows dim
She does what she can Stumbles where she once ran Struggles to get up and get in
We both know it's time
But we both close our minds for one last ride in the car
It's right but it feels all wrong
Short time here, long time gone,
Just one more night beneath these earthly stars

The last time, the last road
Nothing left but the letting go
The trust is still in her eyes
I carry her now,
Along the walk she used to run
When we were young and time
Was on our side
But that door is closed
And I think she knows
Her master is calling her home
A job well done, my faithful one,
You gave so much more than you'll ever know

Bridge - And I see her running free
Through the grass, through the trees
And the wind it blows in her hair
Once again so young, eyes so full of fun, Chasing the wind to who knows where

I say goodbye
My breath turns to a sigh
Drive home alone and so the story ends
I wish I was wise
Knew the reasons, knew the why's
I wish we could all start again
But everyone I know
I'll lose, they'll go,
Don't know how, don't know when
Well that old dog - she's gone
But she left me this song that I sing w
When I think of my best friend...
