

Running Through The Innocent Years - Lyrics

Payback road

*I saw you on the street, I called but you kept walking, away from me
I don't blame you for what you do, I'd do the same if I were you, I'd just break free*

*It's hard but it's ok, I'll walk this desert for 40 days, I won't look back Cause everybody's got to do their time, it separates the survivors from the cheap talk kind, and the scars they show through
The scars, they show through*

*Did you do your time in the desert son,
Or did you run away to the city of gold
Did you fall when the cross got too heavy son,
Well pick it up and walk, a little, further down payback road*

*I tried to talk to you, I must have said something wrong, you walked away
Don't you even recognize my soul, it's the lost one for whom the bell tolls, but I'll get it back someday*

*The ones who've been there well they understand, there's no easy way out of the desert land, you've got to go the distance
Your mind might tell you one thing but your heart it knows, when you've done your time, you can put down that load,
And get yourself off, pay back road
Get yourself off, payback road*

*Did you do your time in the desert son,
Or did you run away to the city of gold
Did you fall when the cross got too heavy son,
Well pick it up and walk, a little, further down payback road*

Never Too Late

*When you were burning bridges, did you cross the line
Were you blinded by pride, are your memories now unkind
It's never too late, grace always comes in time*

*Innocence lost, trading silver for fool's gold
Your mind for money, paying that lost highway toll
But it's never enough, what's wanted here, is your soul*

*Unforgiven, the fire has grown cold
Fallen angel, that story's been told and told
It's never easy, it'll take all, your strength to let go*

*It's a hard road, the only way out of here
The futures unknown, what's been lost is unclear
You're broken brother, but your faith is stronger than your fear*

Masquerade

*I know where the line is,
I know what I've been told
I know what my price is,
And I know how far I can go*

*I'm afraid to look too close,
I'm getting too good at getting by
The promise of youth got broken,
Floating on a sea of compromise*

*I make the doubt disappear
I wipe the fear from my eyes
I don't look in the mirror
I might fall for my disguise*

*I make my truth fit the times
I get along, I get ahead
I make my mind, the right kind
While my heart and soul, hang by a thread*

*I make the doubt disappear
I wipe the fear from my eyes
I don't look in the mirror
I might fall for my disguise*

The Innocent Years

*An empty place at the table tonight, an empty kitchen chair
An empty room where a child once slept, a little voice no longer there
This used to be, the place we called home, we used to make our memories here
Nothing's forever, everything is on loan, running through the innocent years*

*Give and take, the doors open and close, love's all there is, it's everywhere
The price is high and you'll pay and pay, but the trip is worth the fare
It's all I want, it's all that I need, but time it wants to change everything They're here than they're gone, That's just the way it is, the way it's always been*

*Diesel, oil and gasoline
Can take us so far from here
But they've got nothing on what time's gonna do
As it takes away the innocent years*

*The road ahead is so unknown, and we've already come so far
Sometimes the light is so blindingly bright, you can't even see the stars
If you find yourself falling, and your not who you thought you'd become Don't forget who and who's you are, and all the love that you came from*

Time's March

*A golden time, in the warm sunshine
I was yours, you were mine
Love was ours, and we'd let it shine
Through everything we'd do, in that sweet summertime*

*Thinkin' about, all I'll never do again
All the bridges that got burned, between now and then
And I don't know the future, and I don't know when
And I don't want to know, how the story ends*

*Ooh ... Forgotten memories
Ooh ... Forgotten songs
Ooh ... Forgotten promises
Ooh ... Forgotten gone*

*Tryin' to think of something that'll break through to you
Something old, something new, borrowed or blue
I don't know why, I do the things that I do
All I know is I could never, dance with anyone like I could dance with you*

*Ooh ... It's a long road
Ooh ... We tried, I know
Ooh ... Time, it won't let go
Ooh ... Time, where did it go*

Get It All In

*Get it all in, don't worry 'bout tomorrow
Get it all in, all you've got is today
Get it all in, the pain, the joy, the sorrow
Get it all in, before time takes it all away*

*Get it all in, your side my side
Get it all in, confusion guaranteed
Get it all in, you'll wait forever for that free ride
Get it all in, before time puts you on your knees*

*Day and night, sun and moon
Mother earth, the sheltering sky
Season of plenty, season of ruin
So much, so fast, so soon, so little time*

*Get it all in, the courage to say what you need to say
Get it all in, the black and white, the shades of gray
Get it all in, working off the debts you'll never repay
Get it all in, before time takes it all away*

*Day and night, sun and moon
Mother earth, the sheltering sky
Season of plenty, season of ruin
So much, so fast, so soon, so little time*

Fly Away

*The autumn mists are rolling in, the sun is setting low
The wild geese gather overhead, they know it's time to go
They fly away, on a wing and a prayer, fly away...*

*The fearsome breath of northern winds have stripped the branches bare
A timeless dance of brittle leaves sent spinning through the air
They fly away, no one knows where, fly away...*

*Fly away...Soar with eagles, sail an endless sea, run with horses
All I ask is wait for me, remember me
Soar with eagles, sail an endless sea, run with horses
All I ask is wait for me ...wait for me*

*You said you didn't want to leave, and yet you couldn't stay
I didn't want to hold you back, I watched you fly away...*

*A bitter frost has fallen but its efforts are in vain
Since beauty only slumbers gaining strength to rise again
And fly away, on a wing and a prayer, fly away...*

*Fly away...Soar with eagles, sail an endless sea, run with horses
All I ask is wait for me, remember me
Soar with eagles, sail an endless sea, run with horses
All I ask is wait for me ...wait for me ...remember me*

The Coming Of Winter

*No reason to get up, I could lay here all day
Just let things be, let them pass as they may
Let the leaves change their colour, just before they fall
The coming of winter, I've been feeling its call*

*The children have grown, my parenting's done
The house is so quiet, no daughters no sons
Not much is expected, not much is required
To some just an old man, world weary and tired*

*The past gets more real, as the days disappear
And the time I thought was mine, has been taken by the years
And the only ghosts that haunt me, are the ones I don't fear
I see their faint reflection, in the memories I hold near*

*Now I watch the struggle, I've known it myself
The pride, the vanity, the deceit, the choking wealth
The sound and the fury, the push and the shove
In the end they'll find all that's left is faith, hope and love*

*The past gets more real, as the days disappear
And the time I thought was mine, has been taken by the years
And the only ghosts that haunt me, are the ones I don't fear
I see their faint reflection, in the memories I hold near*

*...It's Thanksgiving morning and I'm grateful for all I've known
I'm grateful for this life...*

Sealed With A Song

*Friends forever, for all time
Taken for granted, in that warm summertime
Let's drink to youth, that sweet, sweet wine
The moment was over, didn't know it was the last time*

*Chasing the wind, chasing tomorrow
Wasting the time, we had borrowed
Farewell, goodbye, sealed with a song
It's the best I can do, now I best be gone*

The wind blows South, turns to the North Round it goes, following its course

*I saw a picture of you looking away
A far horizon in your eyes that day
I didn't know it then, but we were drifting away
Toward tomorrow, and a memory of yesterday*

Colours

*Standing in the doorway, waiting for an answer
You would believe, anything I said
The good times are so fleeting, innocence deceiving
You had no idea, what lay ahead*

*The light fell in colours everywhere,
You couldn't see the shadows but they were there
The lake looked so calm, in the early morning dawn
But no one gets across, without the fare*

*The music was fading, but the band kept playing
What once worked so well, is so hard to let go
Standing in the doorway, your still waiting for an answer
I used to have so many, where they've gone I don't know*

*The light fell in colours everywhere,
You couldn't see the shadows but they were there
The lake looked so calm, in the early morning dawn
But no one gets across, without the fare*

*The clock marks the minutes on the wall
The present colours what the past recalls
The future stands alone, waiting to be known
While time sings a song for us all*

Wasted Time

*Oh you won't make me cry anymore
No you won't make me cry anymore
Cause honey what you flaunt, aint nothing that I want
No you won't make me cry anymore*

*Oh you won't make me blind anymore
No you won't make me blind anymore
Cause honey your disguise, aint covered by your lies
No, you won't make me blind anymore*

*Oh Darling I have wasted so much time
Trying to figure out what's on your mind*

*Oh you won't make me poor anymore
No you won't make me poor anymore
Cause honey your big spending, has finally met its ending
No, you won't make me poor anymore*

*Oh Darling I have finally broken free
Of your self serving rule of tyranny*

*Oh you won't make me mad anymore
No you won't make me mad anymore
Cause honey there's no fire, in the cold coals of desire
No, you won't make me mad anymore*
